For your information, we expect each participant to conform to basic rules of conduct: no possession or use of alcohol, drugs, or tobacco; no fighting, weapons, fireworks, lighters, or explosives; voluntary participation; respect for property, one another, staff, and program leaders; compliance with event schedules. Participants who fail to comply with these expectations may be sent home at their own expense; for minors, their parents or guardians will incur the full responsibility of this expense.

Off-site activities such as this one carry increased risks beyond the scope of a standard youth event. By signing this release, you acknowledge that you understand there are inherent risks involved, and hereby release Generations Church (the Church), and its pastors, employees, volunteer workers, and drivers (its agents) from any and all liability for any injury, loss, or damage to person or property that may occur during the course of your involvement in this event, including transportation to and from the event. In the event that you are injured and require the attention of a doctor, you consent to any reasonable medical treatment as deemed necessary by a licensed physician. In the event treatment is required from a physician and/or hospital personnel chosen by the Church, or the hosting venue, you agree to hold all parties free and harmless of any claims, demands, or suits for damages arising from the giving of such consent. You also acknowledge that you will be ultimately responsible for the cost of any medical care should the cost of that medical care not be reimbursed by your health insurance provider. Should you become ill and the need arise for you to return home early, you also agree to cover the full costs of that travel.
